SUMMER CONFERENCE '25

Florida Treble All-Stars Honor Chorus

JULY 22 - 23, 2025

HILTON ORLANDO / ALTAMONTE SPRINGS

Guest Clinician

Evan Powers

Evan Powers is currently pursuing his Ph.D. in Music Education at the University of North Texas. He holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Music Education from the Florida State University. He spent the first four years of his professional teaching career at Fleming Island High School in Orange Park, FL where he was named "Teacher of the Year" for the 2012-2013 school year. For the following 9 years, he served as the choral director at Avalon Middle School in Orlando, FL. During his tenure his advanced treble choir, Avalon Singers, was selected to perform at the 2019 Florida State ACDA Conference, and he was honored as "Teacher of the Year" for the 2020-2021 school year. He is an active adjudicator, presenter and choral clinician, presenting at conferences and conducting honor choirs across the country. He is also an active choral arranger, arranging pieces for secondary, collegiate, community and church choirs, and a cappella groups across the country and internationally. He is passionate about service through music and was the inaugural recipient of the Orange County Public Schools Arts Community Impact Award in 2018 as well as the 2020-2021 Florida Music Education Association Exemplary Model Program Award for the "Songbird" program. His current research interests include empathy development in music education, choirs with special populations, and professional development.

Collaborative Pianist

Chad DeLoach

Chad DeLoach is the Founder/Owner of Choral Accompaniment Tracks and a recently retired Florida Middle School Choral Director. Mr. DeLoach holds a Masters and Bachelors degree in Choral Music Education from the Florida State University College of Music. He has taught at the middle and high school levels as well as the collegiate level as an Adjunct Professor at The University of Tampa.
Mr. DeLoach is an active accompanist and clinician for various honor choirs and has accompanied State,Division and National ACDA Honor Choirs and accompanied his 18th Florida All-State Chorus this year.
